21st Annual

Poets House Showcase

Exhibition Catalog

|Poets House| 10 River Terrace|New York, NY 10282|poetshouse.org|

The 2013 Poets House Showcase is made possible through the generosity of the hundreds of publishers and authors who have graciously donated their beautiful books. We are deeply grateful to Deborah Saltonstall Pease for her ongoing support. Thanks also to the National Endowment for the Arts, the New York State Council on the Arts, the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, the Concordia Foundation, the Leon Levy Foundation, and the many members of Poets House for their support of this project.

Welcome to the 2013 Poets House Showcase, the annual, all-inclusive exhibition of the most recent poetry books, chapbooks, broadsides, artist's books, and multimedia works published in the United States and abroad. This year marks the 21st Anniversary of the Poets House Showcase, and our most comprehensive exhibition yet, featuring over 2,900 books from more than 700 different presses and publishers. Since its inception, the Showcase has helped to build one of the most extensive collections of poetry in our nation and a comprehensive record of the poetry of our time for all to share.

Building the Exhibit—and the Poets House Library Collection

Every year, Poets House invites poets and publishers to participate in the annual Showcase by donating copies of poetry titles released since January of the previous year. This year's exhibit highlights all poetry titles published in 2012 and the first part of 2013.

Poets House aims to provide a comprehensive, inclusive collection of poetry that is free and open to the public. To this end, the library staff reaches out to as many poetry communities and producers as it can find. The Poets House Showcase strives to include every kind of poetry from every type of publisher, whether it is the product of a big press, a university or independent press, an artists' collective, a micropress, a letterpress or book arts studio, or one of the increasing number of poets who publish or print their own works. Books are contributed by the entire poetry community, from the poets and publishers who continually send us their newest titles, to library visitors carrying a book to donate when they come in. Every publication is welcome and celebrated in the Showcase.

Organization and Scope of the Showcase

The Showcase exhibit is organized alphabetically by publisher, making it a valuable resource as a snapshot of this moment in time for those who wish to understand the changing landscape of poetry publishing in the United States.

The Poets House Showcase focuses on individual collections of poetry, but it also includes a wide array of prose and criticism, anthologies, chapbooks and multilingual volumes. As in past years, the Showcase includes poetry presented in atypical formats: from traditional broadsides and accordion books, to scrolls and poetry trading cards, to one-of-a-kind art objects like a poem tucked into an original painting and even a #bookrecord. The Showcase display is organized by publisher, so that the whole community can see what each publisher has produced throughout the year.

The focus of the Poets House Showcase is on United States presses and publishers, but the collection is also designed to serve an international community of poets. For this reason, Poets House includes books from international publishers: particularly English-language books from Canadian and UK publishers, but a good selection from other countries as well.

Exhibition Dates

The 2013 Poets House Showcase opens to the public on June 27, 2013. Over the next month, four readings will be held in celebration of the Showcase from some of the many authors whose works are featured in the exhibition, including Sarah Arvio, Catherine Barnett, Roger Bonair-Agard, Latasha N. Nevada Diggs, Alex Dimitrov, Cornelius Eady, Peter Filkins, Karen Garthe, Thomas Glave, Dean Kostos, Dorothea Lasky, Michael Leong, Rachel Levitsky, Will Schutt, Cecilia Vicuña, and Susan Wheeler.

Showcase books are displayed in Poets House's Elizabeth Kray Hall until August 3, 2013. After that date, Showcase titles move upstairs into our library, where they are shelved specially and alphabetized by author, rather than by publisher, so that they are accessible to visitors wishing to browse the collection's most recent titles. At the time of the next Showcase, the Showcase titles of the previous year are integrated into our 50,000-volume, ever-growing poetry collection.

The Numbers

The 2013 Poets House Showcase includes 2,913 titles from 719 publishers and presses. This includes 503 chapbooks, 138 anthologies, 45 broadsides, 38 artist's books, 123 prose works, and 24 multimedia works. 33 of the titles are foreign-language, bilingual, or multilingual, in 13 different languages, from French, Spanish, and Japanese, to Corsican and Shetland dialect. Of the 2,913 titles, 1965 were published in 2012 and 948 in 2013. 21 are uncorrected proofs and advance reading copies of books yet to be published. 2620 books were published by U.S. presses.

How to Participate in the Poets House Showcase

Poets House is happy to accept donations for our annual Showcase all year, and all titles donated to us within a year of their publication will be included in that year's Showcase. As the Showcase is an inclusive event, Poets House encourages all publishers and poets to submit one copy of their most recently published poetry titles to Poets House to be featured in our next exhibit.

Please direct your submissions to Gina Scalise, Poets House Librarian, and spread the word!

Acknowledgements

Poets House wishes to thank each author, publisher, and poetry lover who contributed the thousands of books in this exhibition. Without your generosity, the Poets House Showcase could not exist. Special thanks to Brent Cunningham, Laura Moriarty, and the rest of our friends at Small Press Distribution, for contributing many key titles to our exhibition.

Many thanks to the Board of Directors for their unflagging support of our mission. Thanks to Lee Briccetti, Executive Director, and Jane Preston, Managing Director, for facilitating and encouraging this endeavor. Thanks to the Poets House staff—Joe Fritsch, Reggie Harris, Alice Kaasik, Christina Lem, Alexandra Mann, Krista Manrique, Claude McCalla, Stephen Motika, Mike Romanos, Bleuberthol Scott, and Suzanne Wise—for their constant support and advice. The 2013 Showcase is presented with deepest gratitude to Deborah Saltonstall Pease, whose love of this program and Poets House supports all of our efforts.

It's been my pleasure to work with and learn from Poets House librarian Gina Scalise, whose library expertise and warm-hearted leadership style were equally indispensable during the Showcase process. Special acknowledgement is also due to Elizabeth Beller, the Poets House Cataloging Assistant, who tamed the innumerable packages of books that appeared on our doorstep every day. Thank you as well to all of the Poets House volunteers and interns, for generously giving their time to help us catalog, alphabetize, shelve, display, and otherwise keep tabs on almost 3,000 books: Abby Astor, Livia Brock, Sharon-Rose Broome, Kelly Carmena, Brian Carpenter, Lara Elmayer, Andrea Hansen, Joanna Harris, Lara Jacobs, Larry Kaplun, Marney Knowlton, Martha Lerski, Leonor Miller, Stephanie Nickel, Elena Nicolaou, Jamie Samdahl, Alex Sarrigeorgiou, Sara Sheiner, Lily Shell, Allison Somers, Miriam Starc, Molly Sulds, Sarah Tibbling, and Madeline Wattenbarger.

And a final thank you to the people we've built this Showcase for: our readers, visitors, and Poets House patrons. We hope you continue to find inspiration and beauty in our newest crop of books, and in each new Showcase for years to come.
